Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised. Language: English. Brand new Book. This effort of mine - now as a revised edition - is offered as an open, person to person down-to-earth laymen's testimony of sorts of my struggles and frustrations, the pain and agony of feeling lost and unfulfilled both as a dedicated believer and a wandering prodigal son. Why is it that the Spirit and trust that lead someone to God, to church could be lost while inside? Why are the true teachings of Jesus, so plain and so simple, buried behind so many doctrines, so many 'isms, so many other issues when his simple command was to 'Love one another as I have loved you'? The greatest two commands he gave were condensed down to that one and both of them began with the word - love. Love so simple, yet so profound in its power to persuade, to heal, to comfort, to be a sign of strength and commitment, the power behind Creation, the bond that unites family and friend, the acknowledgment of discovering the uniqueness of one another. Why have we abandoned it for rules, theology, rituals and not let it transform us and in turn transform the world as we were meant to do long ago? Instead we argue over those same rules, doctrine, and theology. We bicker over the rituals, over ceremonies, over why one denomination is 'true' and another is false. We grab our Bibles and proclaim our faith is the only true faith, and we are the chosen few and some of us gladly tell anyone who doesn't believe that an eternity of punishment awaits them. 'Blessed are the meek, the poor in spirit, the peacemakers' has been turned into flag waving rallies promoting war, slogans advocating hatred,...
